

Michael W. Perry

National Board Certified Teacher

One Park Walk

Dallas, GA 30157

Voice Mail 770-309-5113

OBJECTIVE

To create a challenging teaching environment using my expertise in business, computer technology, and communication to enable my students to succeed in life.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- ◆ National Conference Filemaker Speaker in Florida, Nebraska, Georgia, Michigan and Minnesota
- ◆ Featured in Apple's Distinguished Educator's Podcast on Rubrics and Filemaker
- ◆ Contributing Author for Glencoe Publishing — Computer Concepts Text
- ◆ Author and Principal reviewer for Glencoe High School Multimedia textbook
- ◆ Authored Working Smart Power Point Slides CD for SW Publishing
- ◆ 1999 Atlanta Journal Constitution Honor Teacher $5000 Grant Winner
- ◆ Wrote a successful $126,000 Pay for Performance School Grant
- ◆ Designed and implemented an in-school television studio
- ◆ Created an in-class computer lab for Work Experience Program

HONORS

- Selected as Georgia's Post Secondary Business Teacher of the Year 2006-2007
- Selected as Georgia's Secondary Business Teacher of the Year 2003-2004
- Who's Who Among American High School Teachers 2003-2004
- Selected as Teacher of the Year by West Georgia's Phi Delta Kappa 2001
- Selected as Innovative Teacher of the Year by Phi Delta Kappa 1999
- 1999 Atlanta Journal Constitution Honor Teacher Finalist
- Selected as Dade County Work Experience Teacher of the Year 1991
- Runner-up for Dade County computer teacher of the year 1990
- Speaker at Global Conference on Business and Economics in London UK
- Speaker at Hawaii International Business Conference
- Speaker at Georgia Educational Technology Conference
- Speaker at Georgia Tech Prep Conference
- Speaker at Gulf South Vocational Conference
- Speaker at Georgia BMIT Fall Conference

EDUCATION

Specialist degree in Business Education from the University of West Georgia (August 1997).
Master's degree in Technical and Professional Communication from Southern Polytechnic State University (September 1996).
BBA in Management from Georgia State University (June 1983).

Michael W. Perry

National Board Certified Teacher

MISSION & BELIEF

My mission is to “grow” professionals, one student at a time by developing relationships that empower us to serve others. I believe that “you can get everything out of life that you want, IF you just help enough other people get what they want out of life.” Zig Ziglar

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2005-Present Business Teacher at East Paulding High School
- 2000-Present Adjunct Business Instructor at Kennesaw State University
- 1999-2005 Business Teacher at Chapel Hill High School
- 1998-2000 Adjunct Business Education Professor at the University of West Georgia
- 1995-1999 Technology Educator at South Central Middle School in Bartow County GA
- 1997 Adjunct Business Teacher at North Metro Tech
- 1996-1997 Business Teacher at Success (Evening) High School in Bartow County GA
- 1993-1995 International Business Teacher at Riverwood High School in Fulton County GA
- 1991-1992 Educational Consultant in Instructional Technology for the Northeast Educational Consortium in FL
- 1991-1992 Seventh Grade Math Teacher at Lake Butler Middle School in Union County FL
- 1987-1991 Work Experience Coordinator and Math Teacher at Southwest Miami High School in Dade County FL

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Professional Association of Georgia Educators (PAGE) Professional Learning Committee Chair 2006-2007, PAGE Legislative Committee Member, PAGE Building Steward, Phi Delta Kappa, PDK Newsletter Editor 2000-2001, Georgia Business Education Association, GBEA Board of Directors 2000-2002, SBEA, NBEA,

OTHER RELEVANT FACTS

Former professional photographer and technical writer.
Member of Filemaker's National Speaker's Bureau
Can teach MS Office applications; Dreamweaver, Adobe Photoshop Elements, project management, video production, multimedia development; web design.